Good hints and useful sources

- ▶ Look for a proper input (text, video, etc.)
 - ▶ Texts:
 - ▶ not too long
 - ▶ prepare a glossary
 - ▶ let the students maybe do part of the reading as HW
 - ▶ Be really familiar with the text yourself (pronunciation, ...)
 - ▶ Know about good students (reading skills)

Good hints and useful sources

- ▶ Video:
 - ▶ 5–10 minutes or only parts of a video
 - ▶ If necessary with subtitles but mind the quality (very often automatically generated)
 - ▶ Hand out the word list before watching the video. (depending on the difficulty)

Good hints and useful sources

- ▶ Don't translate unless absolutely necessary.
 - ▶ Use English sources!
 - ▶ Take a topic that is appropriate for being taught through English (international aspect, etc.)
 - ▶ Let the students work!
Avoid too many teacher-centered situations.

Good hints and useful sources

- ▶ Remember: You are subject teachers and don't have to be language teachers but CLIL is more than just English as a working language!
 - ▶ You have to make sure that students understand the new words, learn them, remember them and can actually use and apply them in different contexts.

Good hints and useful sources

- ▶ How about a language course in the holidays?
- ▶ ERASMUS+
- ▶ It's worth trying!!!
